Do you love the outdoors?

Certificate III in Conservation and Land Management - AHC31416

Pathway: If you love working outdoors and learning new skills this course could propel you into a qualified horticulture, forestry, agriculture or parks and gardens career, or lead you on to further study.

Duration: The course runs for two days a week. There are no practical placement requirements for this qualification.

Requirements: There are no minimum education requirements to participate in this course, a nominal resource fee is applicable.

Enrolment fee: Concession - $250 + GST
Non-concession - $600 + GST

You'll learn to:

- Contribute to Work Health and Safety Processes
- Apply environmentally sustainable work practices
- Identify plant specimens
- Conduct site inspections
- Recognise fauna
- Collect native seed
- Plan and construct conventional fencing
- Prepare and apply chemicals
- Transport and store chemicals
- Control weeds
- Perform machinery maintenance
- Operate machinery and equipment
- Provide information on plants and their culture
- Maintain natural areas
- Implement re-vegetation works
- Implement a plant establishment program

edge Learning Group
learn, grow, share

Edge Learning Group is not the education provider. Edge Learning Group's role is to provide marketing and referral services for Access Skills Training, which is the Registered Training Provider for this course.

Nationally Recognised Training

For information, contact our friendly office team!
03 5482 5885
www.qualifytraining.com.au

AST Access Skills Training
TOID 4603
TOID: 4603

Currently taking enrolments!